Section 17.116.040 Home occupations.

A home occupation is an accessory use of a residential property for gainful employment by the resident of a dwelling, customarily carried on within the living area or accessory building on a residential property or its adjacent swimming pool, which does not change the residential character of the dwelling unit. A business may be conducted at locations other than the site of the home occupation, as long as that part of the business conducted at the site of the home occupation complies with subsection A or B of this section. A site plan, floor plan and written consent of the property owner shall be submitted as part of the home occupation permit application. A home occupation permit issued by the planning director shall be required prior to the establishment of a home occupation. A home occupation permit is required whenever a business license is required and the home is the principal place of business.

A. Home occupations meeting the following standards are permitted in conjunction with a residential use of a dwelling and shall be issued a home occupation permit:

1. Is confined to a cumulative area of not more than six hundred (600) square feet in the principal dwelling, attached garage and/or detached accessory buildings. An attached or detached garage may be used for storage or work space as long as one garage parking space is maintained at all times for the dwelling and as long as sufficient parking spaces are available on the property to meet the current code requirements;
2. Does not occupy any open space, yard or setback;
3. Is carried on by the resident members of the household and one employee;
4. Does not generate customer or client traffic, deliveries by commercial vehicles other than pickup trucks or panel delivery trucks, or have any customers or clients coming to the premises as a place of business, with the following exceptions:
 - a. Delivery to the customer or client of merchandise produced on the premises,
 - b. No more than two clients may visit the premises on any one day,
 - c. Swimming lessons to no more than two persons at any one lesson with no more than six lessons in any one week,
 - d. Other uses which in the opinion of the planning director are similar to the above uses with the same or similar restrictions listed in this section;

5. Creates no noise, odor, glare, dust, vibrations, fumes or smoke readily discernible at the exterior boundaries of the parcel on which the home occupation is situated;
6. Produces no advertising or evidence of its existence except for a post office box, a telephone listing and signs limited to a total of four square feet permanently affixed to a vehicle. No advertising, telephone listing, signs or printed material may list the street address of the dwelling;
7. Involves the on-site parking or storage of no more than one commercial vehicle, as long as the commercial vehicle parks inside the garage or covered parking at all times.

B. Exceptions to the above standards may be granted by the planning commission with the approval of a use permit for an expanded type of home occupation. In approving a use permit for an expanded home occupation the planning commission must make the following findings:

1. The establishment of an expanded home occupation is compatible with and will not be detrimental to the residential character of the neighborhood and surrounding uses;
2. The establishment of an expanded home occupation will not result in or contribute to an unacceptable concentration of nonresidential uses in the neighborhood where it has been proposed; and
3. The establishment of an expanded home occupation will not result in excessive noise, traffic and parking congestion. (Ord. 09-5 § 2 (Exh. A): prior code § 27.233)
